

Two cases are all observed full-balance GIVE events, selected by that rule. Immediate accounting is not a causal survival estimate.
Timing uses transfer events; EXIT uses repeated eligible responses. Models each have only five games.